“For many years Markus has supported St Richards Hospice and the Stroke Association. What impressed the school has been his caring side towards others, always checking on his elderly neighbours. A true gentleman in the making!”

Emma Telger, Nunnery Wood High School

“Against the odds, Dan’s confidence has grown both on and off stage and he is now a role model for the younger students involved in extra curricular activities. We are all so proud of Dan’s development and excited to see what he will achieve next year.”

“Ali is inspirational to other young people and everyone here at St Basils are so proud of him for the distance he has come, his bravery and his kindness.”

Sheila Bishop, St Basils

“I am extremely proud of this young lady. Her resilience, bravery and down right “grit” constantly amazes me and she deserves to be recognised for keeping a smile on her face at all times despite her circumstances.”

Caroline Palethorpe, Tenbury High Ormiston Academy

“Greta is an inspiring young lady, she has truly transformed herself through studying Taekwon-Do. She has shown that even the shyest person can become strong, rise to their own challenges and achieve their goals. She is a fantastic role model.”

Sally Gleaves, Worcestershire Martial Arts.

“The 8 young people stand up and expose themselves to their peers for the greater good. They generously give their precious time to raise awareness of the impact that being a carer has on their lives.”

Jonathan Cawdron, YSS

“Members of the Participation Group are committed to promoting Young Carers in Worcester. They planned and delivered a conference to raise awareness of the impact that mental health has on young carers.”

"The Chantry School Community Leaders aim to develop community links within school and within the wider community. They give up their own time, they really are an inspirational group of young people"

Samantha Blunt, The Chantry School

"Chloe is a tremendous shining star of guts, determination and effort. We will miss seeing Chloe around and wish her all the best."

Emma Telger, Nunnery Wood High School

"Natasha's illness seems to be an enigma to the doctors and surgeons but she has continued to support her mother and to still volunteer at every opportunity. I have never worked with anyone more deserving of recognition."
